Understanding Low Vision. Randall T. Jose, Editor. American Foundation for the Blind, Inc., 15 West 16th Street, New York, New York 10010. 555 pages. $18.

This book presents information to professionals who serve clients with low vision. Topics covered include understanding the eye and functional vision, psychosocial aspects of low vision and aging and visual impairment, low vision rehabilitation services, assessment of children with low vision, treatment options, establishing a training and instructional program, assessment of multiply handicapped people, role model for an orientation and mobility instructor, and a teacher of the visually handicapped, and delivery systems.

Cardiac Rehabilitation: Exercise Testing and Prescription. Linda K. Hall, Ph.D., G. Curt Meyer, M.S., and Herman K. Hellerstein, M.D., editors. SP Medical & Scientific Books, a division of Spectrum Publications, Inc., 175-20 Wexford Terrace, Jamaica, New York 11432. 452 page. $40.

This book, intended as a resource to professionals, contains 26 chapters by 26 authors, presented under 9 sections: Diagnosis of Coronary Artery Disease; Current Management of Coronary Disease; Assessment of the Cardiac Rehabilitation Candidate; The Patient in Cardiac Rehabilitation; Exercise Prescription in Cardiac Rehabilitation; Exercise Physiology Applied to Cardiac Rehabilitation; Education for the Professional and the Patient; Intervention Techniques Applied to Cardiac Patients; and Concerns in Cardiac Rehabilitation.

Footsteps to Survival. Michael Holodnak. Philosophical Library, 200 West 57th Street, New York, New York 10019. 203 pages. $15.00.

This is a story based on the author's true experiences as a patient in a major veterans' hospital. The author paints a vivid picture of the shortcomings of a large government-run medical institution and issues an urgent plea for reform. Ideas of this book have been integrated into the curriculum of the Yale School of Medicine.

Cultivating Industry/Rehabilitation Relationships. (Four cassette tapes; 3 hours) National Restaurant Association, 311 First Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001. $20.

These four cassette tapes help you turn your current development/training/placement programs into industry's best source for employees.

Edited tapes from a Project With Industry/National Restaurant Association presentation on May 22, 1984 in Chicago.
